Giovanni, Rex and Cainnleach, Regina Outlandium

Unto the magnificent populace of the Kingdom of the Outlands do we, Giovanni and Cainnleach, King and Queen of the most superb Kingdom in the Knowne Worlde, send warm greetings.

Grand Outlandish is always a special event in Our Kingdom where we can fight, laugh, fight, visit friends, fight, and dance and, of course, fight. This year's Grand Outlandish will be enhanced by the investiture of The Honorable Lord Ryan de Caergybi and The Honorable Lady Tana a l'Esprit Fort. We hope that everyone will be able bear witness to the investiture of the new Baron and Baroness of al-Barran. While change may be unwelcome at times, we are sure that the Barony will continue to grow and prosper.

Our thanks to Baron Alexander Erickson Trevor and Baroness Fermina Caballo for their capable administration of their fief during the past five years. We well know the joy and hardship that the Noble Estate creates for each individual bearing that Coronet. Again, our heartfelt thanks.

We would like to thank the Canton of Hawk's Hollow for hosting a great Coronation. Our special thanks to Lady Yuki and the rest of the Canton's crew for their fine and diligent efforts. We would also like to thank Baroness Emma for her suggestions, coordination, and re-writes of our Coronation Ceremony. We would also render special thanks to our Cousins, Konrad and Kortland, King and Queen of Artemesia, for their attendance at Our Coronation.

On a different note, We ask that all heavy fighters give serious consideration to entering the next Crown Tournament. This is a wonderful Tournament within which to match your skills, showcase your talents, and (most importantly) bring great honor to your Consort. We are asking this early due to the requirement of both entrant and consort of having your arms submitted or approved. Please review Kingdom Law as to the specific requirements for entry into Crown Tournament.

There has also been much discussion regarding the "intent to win" clause in Kingdom Law and the Sword Oath regarding Crown Tournament. Please know that We believe this to mean you will fight your best, trying to win each fight. Not that you believe you can walk out and win the tournament. Should you have questions or comments on this issue, please contact Us at your earliest convenience.

During Our Reign we intend to travel to Northshield, Artemesia's Uprising, and Pennsic. His Majesty will also be attending Lillies. Please join us in meeting old friends and making new ones in these great Kingdoms.

There has been so much growth in the Kingdom. If we do not know you, please introduce yourself to Us. We understand the Crowns can make people nervous but please allow Us to get to know you.

Finally, the majority of Our Kingdom officers have changed during the past eight months. We ask that you give them your courtesy and assistance, and perhaps volunteer to be a deputy.

Yours, In Service to the Outlands;

Giovanni Cainnleach

Ah, Good Gentles, the third week-end in June will be here before you know it. I know Lilies War is that week-end, but, there will be many Gentles who will not be going and you are all invited to the Shire of Plattefordham to compete in Mavis' Prize Tourney. As in years past, this will be a tourney-within-a-tourney. There will be the Plattefordham Tourney which is open to all fighters and there will be Mavis' Champion Tourney which is only open to Plattefordham fighters. Each Tourney invites heavy weapons and light with a bardic competition to determine the winner for each should such a final competition be needed. We will have many pleasant ways available to kill all your friends. Besides the top prizes, an outfit of made-to-measure garb for each tourney, there will be other prizes for fine dying, chivalry and flattering THL Mavis.

Dinner will be pot luck. Bring enough of your favorite dish to feed 8 people and Plattefordham will provide dessert. Be sure you bring plenty of non-alcoholic beverages as there is no potable water in this part of the park. Because we will be right next to a busy street, this really isn't a safe place for pets.

Directions: Take the King's Highway (I-25) to Casper, WY. Take the Poplar St. Exit and turn South—toward the mountain. Drive until you see the park on the left.

Random

Once there came amongst us a rogue of such devilry and cunning, we knew at once he was one of our cousins. Beneath the Shadow of the Stag, we reveled, in one great familial joyous occasion after another. We watched and waited to find out more of this one's arts. And revealed unto us and to our great Kingdom of the Outlands, we witnessed scrolls whose intricacies and beauty were beyond measure, and whose recipients could truly say they had in their possession great treasure. An artist indeed, we thought to ourselves....

But wait! The sun sets and the stars arise and the fire roars and the drums rumble their siren song, and the joy and the freedom that is the Outlands begins to emerge! And then Lord Random begins to dance. There is mystery. We witness his supreme interaction with the music, with ourselves, and within himself. Lord Random, well, he is Suave', and some may say, Suavey.

Through triumph and tragedy within our family we stay strong. We remember Lord Random with the next toast of the wine, the next pounding of the drum, the next scroll which passes hands, the next dancer who captures the essences of masculinity and subtlety. We know that wherever and whenever the spirit of Random comes near, we will be inspired to greatness. We will be inspired to make many toasts, one after another, with many nastrovias! To Random! To Suave! Long live the fighters!

Good gentles of the Outlands, Harken. The Shire of Windkeep invites all to attend our annual Banner Tourney to be held on Saturday, June 26, 2004 from 10:00 AM till 3:00 PM. Valiant fighters will contest on the field with an Outlands Banner as the prize for the most flamboyant and chivalrous fighter in the lists (there will probably be a prize for the winner too, but showmanship is what counts). There will also be prizes for best death, best bereavement, as well as a contest for the best banner. Fencers are welcome. In order to enter the list, you must present a banner to the Mistress of the Lists and display it on the field. The banner does not have to be your own. The banner can display personal arms, historical arms, or be just plain decorative. HERALDRY COUNTS. Fanfares and demonstrations before combat are encouraged. This tournament is held in conjunction with Cheyenne Superdays 2004, which is an entertainment demonstration and craft fair held by the City of Cheyenne. It routinely draws 20,000 visitors each year. We ask all gentles to wear their finest tourney garb, bring their pavilions, arts displays, and show off the best of what our Society has to offer. There will be dancing for all interested, and an Arts and Sciences pavilion where artisans are encouraged to display and demonstrate their abilities.

Tourney Site: The grassy area adjacent to the Cheyenne Botanical Gardens in Lions Park. Take the Central Avenue exit from I-25 and follow the signs to Superdays. The site will open at 8:00 AM and close generally after 3:00 PM. Please arrive early enough so that armor inspection can begin at 10:00 AM with the tourney starting at 10:30 AM.

The tourney site is DRY. Pets must be on a leash, and under your immediate control. There is a lake very near, so please keep track of your children as well. You will be allowed to park along the site on Carey Avenue to unload, but you must move your vehicle immediately after unloading. Parking will be available in the lots adjacent to Superdays (tell the parking attendant you are part of the entertainment). The earlier you come, the better (closer) the parking.

Revel: Immediately after the day's activities, a revel will be held at the Gazebo in Lyons Park. The cooks of Windkeep will be providing culinary delights to satisfy both the stomach and the soul. The Gazebo is north of the tourney site. There will be directions at the tourney site. The revel site is dry. Please contact the autocrat for revel information.

Seneschal's Office

Unto the populace of the Outlands does The Honorable Lord Roland O'Rourke, Outlands Kingdom Seneschal, send most warm greetings!

It is with great pleasure and sadness that I pen to you this missive, for on the day hence of this writing, the glorious reign of King Hoegaarden and Queen Chiara shall end. Yet I take heart that I will be soon comforted by the fact that the Outlands Crowns shall quickly find rest upon regal brows, once more, as the reign of King Giovanni and Queen Cainnleach commences. Best wishes to Their Majesties for a pleasant and productive reign!

Before I go any further, please allow me to introduce myself, I am The Honorable Lord Roland O'Rourke, and it was with great pleasure and honor that I was appointed as your new Kingdom Seneschal at the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition in April. I originally hail from the Canton of Hawk's Hollow within the legendary Barony of Caerthe and follow in the footsteps of several renowned and respected predecessors. I pledge to utilize the skills and talents I have learned throughout numerous years of Seneschal and officer experience, to serve this Kingdom to the best of my abilities. Towards that end, I have recruited and retained a number of talented individuals to assist me in these efforts, which I also wish to introduce.

Serving as my Drop-dead Deputy is the former Baroness of The Citadel of the Southern Pass, Mistress Leah. Administering to the three regions of this mighty Kingdom (Southern, Northern and Far Northern) are THLord Torcail, Baron Eliahu and THLady Mavis, respectively. Mistress Richenza will continue to receive and monitor event waivers for Kingdom Events and my "Jack of all trades" is my Special Projects Deputy, THLord Robert. Good populace, I hope you will join me in welcoming these fine gentles into the Kingdom Seneschal's office, for I have confidence that their efforts shall greatly enhance this Kingdom, in the years ahead. Contact information for those listed above can be found under the Seneschal listing contained in this journal or at the Outlands website.

Also, I must express my gratitude to those who, through their sharing of knowledge and skill, are the reason why I address you this day. I must initially thank Mistress Taryn for originally recruiting me into the position of Caerthen Seneschal and Syr Rhys for successfully soliciting me to serve the Kingdom arm of this office. My appreciation to Countess Rosalind and Mistress Bennet for teaching me the duties and imparting to me the wisdom of the positions of Kingdom Event Bid Coordinator and Keeper of the Kingdom Calendar, respectively. In addition, my personal thanks to Master Adam for his mentorship and friendship throughout my journey as his deputy. Finally and most importantly, my most heartfelt thanks to my lady, Orflaith ni Dhubhain, for her constant support, friendship & love.

Now that I have paid respects to those due, I'm alarmed to discover that I have very little space left in which to discuss the matters of business. No matter. I will, as any good Seneschal would, make the most with what I have.

My first item is a reminder to the general populace. Good gentles, please remember that every person who offers service to this great Kingdom, regardless of station or level, does so as a volunteer, meaning that their compensation does not come in the form of coin, but in smiles, fellowship and in the continuation to this great Dream. Often, the perceived "smooth" operation of an office or group is the result of countless hours, sweat and dedication. Every day that this Kingdom and this society remain is a tribute of this.

Next is the subject of Stags Con. Yes, dear gentles, it is almost time for "The premier service event of the Outlands". On Saturday, July 10th all who serve as officer, deputy or are just interested in learning the skills and developing the talents of service, are bid to journey to the College of St. Golias (Socorro, NM) for a day of learning and discussion, like few others within the known world. As is Kingdom tradition, the site, the food (breakfast, lunch and dinner) and the classes (unless otherwise noted) are entirely free. For a listing of classes, please check out the Stags Con class list at: www.nmt.edu/~golias/stagscon. A well deserved note of thanks goes to THL Torcail (Stags Con Autocrat) and Lord Flainn (St. Golias Seneschal) for their great efforts in coordinating this event.

My final item of business, for this missive, is the subject of Non-member Surcharges. Good Seneschals and Autocrats, please remember that it is your responsibility and duty to ensure non-member surcharges are forwarded to the Kingdom Exchequer within 30 days after an event. The Society keeps a watchful eye on these monies and it is imperative that these funds are transferred without hesitation.

I end my missive to you, good populace, with a few excerpts from articles I've written for the Caerthen newsletter, The Fortress, which are intended as a means of imparting common sense advice to either those new to the society or serve as a reminder to our veteran participants. Your feedback is welcome. Please remember that these are only suggestions.

On Camping:
-Alcohol, flammables and sharp instruments are magnets for young hands. Keep these items secured, in some manner, at all times!
-Providing hot drinks on a cold morning can make miraculous things happen. Hurt feelings can be mended and new friendships can be forged from this one simple gesture.
-Your camp mates ARE NOT a trash service (and vice versa)! Show your fellow campers how responsible and respectful you are by cleaning up after yourself promptly. This especially includes soda/beer cans and liquor bottles.

In service to the Outlands and the Dream,
THL Roland O'Rourke

Earl Marshal's Office—Kingdom Marshal of Fence

Greetings from the incoming Kingdom Marshal of Fence.

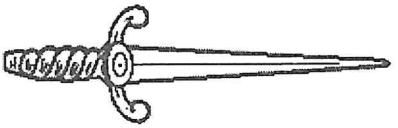
I'm looking forward to working with everyone for the next two years and want to thank Don Carrick for leaving me in a good position to do so. By the time this reaches you, I'm sure we'll have had a successful Outlandish, and I'm looking forward to Glory, Lonely Mountain and Clann Wars in July!

I have only two official pieces of business. The first is that, as of the end of May, the Outlands Sidesword Experiment is ended. We are collecting reports to submit to Society on the safety of this program. I'd like tay thank you to Lord Thomas Dudley for running this program for the Kingdom for the last two years.

Secondly, I'd like to welcome Don Christian St. Clair (of the many nicknames) as my Northern Deputy and drop-dead. I don't think that needs any further elaboration.

Yours in Service

Don Charles Robert Blackstone



Bards of the Outlands, spread the word!

The competition to select the next Windhover Bard is about to begin! Preliminary competitions will be held on July 3 at Glory in Unser Hafen and (autocrat willing) September 4-5 at Silver Pass in Rio de las Animas. The finals will be held at Crown Tournament only one week later on September 11 - southern competitors be prepared! These events were selected to host the competition in accordance with the wishes of both their Majesties and the bards who expressed their preferences to me.

For the preliminary competitions, each entrant will perform two pieces of different styles. One of these pieces must be an original work of spoken-word poetry. The two pieces combined may not exceed 15 minutes (for example, if one piece is 9 minutes long, then the other must be less than 6 minutes). Some entrants may be asked to present additional performances. Bards may enter either the northern or southern preliminaries, regardless of where they live, but not both.

The finalists will perform two pieces of any style, plus an original spoken-word poem composed around a theme to be announced the morning of the competition.

I hope that many of our talented bards will choose to participate in this competition both to honor Mistress Kyriel, the premier Windhover Bard, and to support the bardic arts in the Outlands.

In service,
Lady Elaisse de Garrigues
Windhover Bard of the Outlands

Earl Marshal's Office

Greetings Outlanders,

Tourney season is here and going strong. Enjoy the summer sun and remember to remain hydrated at events. Check your armor and weapons regularly, as they are being used more during the summer and will need repair.

There has been much discussion regarding Children's Combat. To aide in assisting children and adults in building boffer weapons, there is a new website for children and adults to post techniques and share ideas in building quality boffer weapons. That site is http://www.outlandsmarshallate.org/phpBB2/index.php . All persons are invited to post on this site and share creative and positive ideas.

There is a new sword being tested by Sir Alexander and Sir Haroun. They will be able to answer your questions prior to participating in this test. Please partake in the testing process and share your feedback with these two individuals. If you have a new idea for SCA combat weapons, please share it with myself first and we can take your idea through the proper testing process.

As Don Charles has made note, the Sidesword experiment has ended as of May 31, 2004. All information will be relayed to the SCA Marshallate for review. While this is in review, there is no further Sidesword training permitted at events of any type.

Please know that THL Qara Gan (Fontaine), Lord Badai (al-Barran) and Lord Mordrake (Caerthe) are the latest addition to the Authorizing Marshal list. If you are interested in becoming an AM, please feel free to contact me and make known your request. You must be knowledgeable in the rules and have participated in a number of authorizations.

With that, I bid you all enjoy these months of summer and, as always, be safe.

Sir Lavan Longwalker

Ministry of Arts and Sciences

Unto the Good Gentles of the Great and Glorious Outlands, Greetings from the new Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences.

I first wish to thank all those who participated in our recent Arts and Sciences competition; from the former Kingdom Minister who organized the competition to the clean up crew who was there much later than expected and everyone in between who helped make it a wonderful event. With 69 entries it was larger and more glorious than anyone could have imagined.

Recently on the Outlands list there has been considerable discussion about arts competitions. It appears many people have strong feelings and ideas about how competitions are run in this Kingdom. If you are one of these people and you have not already offered up your opinion, now is the time to do so. We have a whole year before the next competition and that means time to make organized thoughtful changes if they are warranted.

In that vein, if you are an artisan who competed in this year's competition and you had problems with the judging or demeanor of your judge, I urge you to contact me IMMEDIATELY while the feelings and information are still fresh so your input can be taken under consideration for the future.

My thanks to Their Majesties for entrusting me with this responsibility.

Lady Chiara Grassi

From the Previous A&S Minister

Once again, I wanted to thank the Kingdom for the incredible participation we saw at the A&S Competition in April. Scores were VERY high, and I want to note four (that's four, f-o-u-r) perfect scores were achieved at the event by: THL Jorunn nic Lochlainn (leather gloves), Baroness Christina McCarty (heraldry in embroidery), Master Gwillim ap Glamorgan & Lady Mirabel de Malmesbury (Gothic book), and Sayidda Maimuna al Bukhariyya (Turkish chemise).

Here are your category winners (and once again, I really must apologize for not announcing Fiber & Functional BEFORE I announced the Champion – I was on a roll & no one interrupted me!)

Fiber: 1st Place: THL Marguertie Dinard / 2nd Place: THL Meenakshi de Gama

Functional: 1st - Master Gwillim ap Glamoragan and Lady Mirabel de Malmesbury
2nd - Lady Jentien van der Roet

Visual: 1st and 2nd - THL Rossilin Katrin von Hohenzollern

Performance: 1st - Petronella / 2nd - Caleb

Domestic: 1st - Lord Frederigo de Granada / 2nd - Lady Orfhlaitha ni Dhubain

This year's Kingdom A&S Champion: THL Rossilin Katrin von Hohenzollern

Once again, this was an awesome (in the original, non-Valley Girl meaning) display of the prodigious talents of our Outlandish Artisans. I want to thank all the entrants, all the judges for their hard work, and the Barony of Caer Galen for putting on such a great event. Many thanks to Jeanne Marie & her staff & especially to Lord Adam who acted as my herald throughout the day & to Timony who cheerfully ran any number of bizarre errands.

Toujours a vos ordres,
THL Margaret Hepburn of Ardrossan

Corporate Policies I.B.2 currently reads:

"International Membership conveys the privileges of Section I.B.1. This membership type is available only to mailing addresses outside the United States or Australia. This type of membership is considered a subscribing membership."

This is now incorrect, as International membership is now no longer available in Finland or New Zealand, in addition to Australia, as these countries have separate corporations and affiliations. More countries will probably incorporate separately in the future. Therefore, the following change is proposed:

"International Membership conveys the privileges of Section I.B.1. This membership type is available only in locations outside the United States which are part of the SCA, Inc., and not subject to an affiliate corporation. This type of membership is considered a subscribing membership."

Chancellery of the Exchequer—Chamberlain

Greetings from the new Kingdom Chamberlain.

I have several goals for my tenure in this office and would like to share them with you.

1) I would like to obtain storage space for Kingdom regalia, the Kingdom trailer, Kingdom pavilion, Kingdom list ropes and old Kingdom Officer files. For example, the Kingdom Exchequer needs to store financial records for 7 years and this requires lots of storage space. I will be contacting the Kingdom Officers to determine their storage needs.

2) I would like to auction off some old regalia to help fund new regalia and/or medallions. Only people who have worn/used the regalia items in the past are allowed to bid on the items. For example, former/current guardsmen may bid on old guard tabards, former/current royalty can bid on old cloaks, etc. I will be advertising the auctions in the OH so check future issues for details.

3) Any future regalia needs or regalia repairs will be put out for bids. These bids will be advertised in the OH and on the Kingdom web site. It may be possible to advertise Baronial regalia needs as well. If no one in the barony has the skills to make a new regalia item, maybe someone in the Kingdom could do it.

4) I would like to gather together all sets of Kingdom thrones. I know there are a few sets out in peoples garages but I want to collect them to assess the damage myself. Repair needs for the old thrones will be put out for bid as well.

5) I would like to post photos of the current Kingdom regalia on the Kingdom web site. This will enable new royalty to determine which articles they would like to use and which should stay in storage for the reign. It will also allow populace members to learn what regalia is used for and how to recognize it. I will be working with the Kingdom Web minister on this project.

If you have any suggestions or comments for me, please feel free to call (before 8:30 pm) or send an email.

Duchess Mina

P.S. Hey, Louis-Philippe, here is another office I can check off the list. I have been secretly learning Heraldry in my plot to take over the world. Now if I could only fight.....

Herald's Office—White Stag Principle Herald

I know many people find the checkboxes on the Name Submissions form to be confusing, so I would like to explain a bit about a few them. There are two boxes to allow submitters to control what kinds of changes may be made to their submitted names. The first is marked "I will NOT allow major changes." A major change is considered to be things like adding or dropping a whole name element or several letters from an element, changing the language of a name element, or changing the order of the name elements. Changing "John Smith the Tall" to "John Smith," "Thegngrimmund Ulfson" to "Grimmund Ulfson," or "Aoengus mac Doughal mhic Chathail" to "Aoengus mac Chathail mhic Dougal" would all be major changes.

The second of these boxes is referred to among heralds as "The Box of Death," and it is labeled "I will NOT allow minor changes." Minor changes include changing, adding, or removing an accent mark or a single letter, changing the order of two transposed letters, or adding, removing, or changing the language of a particle or preposition. Changing "Mor" to "Mór," "Isabelle the flechiere" to "Isabelle le flechiere," or "Faolan" to "Faelan" are all minor changes. The reason that it is called The Box of Death, is if a submitter misreads the documentation as "Faolan" instead of "Faelan" and no documentation can be found that "Faolan" is a period spelling, it will be returned since we must assume that "no minor changes" means "send it back to me for work if it can't be registered exactly this way." The same situation applies if hurried handwriting, or worse, a poor copier, causes the name to appear as "Mòr" when it is supposed to be "Mór." Exercise great caution in checking this box; leaving it blank can save you months of submission time.

A related issue is the section for authenticity. This section is specifically intended to let Rampart and Laurel know that you want to have changes made to your name to make it more authentic for a given time, place, language, or culture. If you check both boxes disallowing changes, then your request for authenticity may not be able to be met.

The last box on the name form that causes frequent confusion is the one prohibiting the creation of a holding name when submitting armory with the name. The benefit of allowing the creation of a holding name, is that it will protect your armory if the name is unregisterable without further work. There is no real disadvantage, because it does not cost anything to change a holding name.

Until next time,
Lady Sorcha MacLeod

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Look for this to be enforced RIGOROUSLY beginning with the November 2003 issue! Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
